

It's Here! Second Volume!

Historical Narrative

SC Synod History Matters:

The History Matters team is pleased to present the second of the three volume series to update the SC Synod history. Copies are available for purchase at the History Matters display table at Assembly. Sponsors can pick up their reserved copy. A limited number of copies are available at $50 per book.

- Story of SC Synod from early history in 1732 through organization in 1824 and 1988-2018.
- First written history of the SC Synod in the ELCA (1988-2018).
- Written by H. George Anderson, Wayne Kannaday, and Jeanette Bergeron.
- A book of 437 pages with numerous photographs of past as well as current leaders.
- Narrative includes two parts in the one book.
Part One is a 184 pages written by archivist, Jeanette Bergeron, summarizing the history as presented in four previous books.
Part Two is 167 pages written by H. George Anderson and Wayne Kannaday, recording, for the first time, the story of a new church, a new synod, and the ELCA years (1988-2018).
- Includes Appendix with charts of key synod leadership over the years, summary of assemblies and list of congregations and extensive contents and index pages.
- Companion volume to the Congregational Histories volume, introduced in 2017.
- A third volume will be a directory of rostered leaders. Publication date pending.
