

Resolution on Child Protection

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America rejoices that as “Jesus invited the children” (Mark 10: 13-16), so are we to welcome, fully embrace and incorporate children, teaching and learning from them; and

WHEREAS, children are a treasure and gift of God entrusted to the care of families, church, and society (Luther’s Works) and the church is called to faithful tending, intentional stewardship, and sacred responsibility; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA recognizes a call to uphold “Each person is created in God’s image. We respect this God-given right to dignity and, inspired by the life of Jesus, show love and compassion for all people. Through proclamation of the gospel, through worship and as servants of God working for healing and justice in the world, we uphold and seek to protect the dignity and human rights of all people...As Christ’s church, we value the richness of God’s creation and offer a radical welcome to all people, appreciating our common humanity and our differences,” including the children in our midst, <https://www.elca.org/about/vision-and-purpose>; and

WHEREAS, in the United States, at least 1 in 7 and as many as 1 in 4 children experience abuse or neglect; and

WHEREAS, the offenders of child maltreatment can be parents, nonparents, unrelated caregivers, siblings, or other children: and

WHEREAS, the Christian Church has perpetuated the spiritual injury of survivors of child abuse and the harm caused by child abuse; therefore, be it

Resolved, that all congregations, ministries and institutions of the South Carolina Synod are provided with tools and strongly encouraged to implement and clearly communicate, at the very least, the following policies:

screening and background checks including, but not limited to, SLED checks and Sex Offender Registry checks for all staff and volunteers working with children and/or youth; and six months of involvement with the congregation before being allowed to work with children and/or youth; and sign-in and sign-out lists for events and a clear limit on who can sign a child out from an event; and requiring signed permission forms for the sharing of photographs or videos to the general public, including e-news, social media pages of the congregation, ministries and institutions; and restricting access to non-visible areas of a building during events or overnights, including storage and maintenance rooms; and observing the “second adult” rule in any meeting space or vehicle, preferably not related; and observing open-door policy; never having an adult one-on-one with a child or youth - if necessary, meet together in a public place and keep communication lines open with parents/caregivers; and at least two unrelated adults be involved in any verbal or written communication with children and/or youth via digital, mobile, and online mediums, such as texts, chats, video calls, or emails; and not limiting access of children or youth to resources and supplies during events such as, food, beverages, personal care items, and activity supplies which are specifically provided for their use and benefit: and be it finally

Resolved, that congregations, ministries and institutions provide training in recognizing and reporting child maltreatment, including mandatory reporting and resources for walking through that process as a faith community.

Deacon Ashlyn Cox
Teresa Foster

Mary Katherine Goynne
Rev. Josh Kestner

Deacon Deborah Poole
Hunter Prest

S7.01.A23. In reviewing proposed memorials, resolutions, and main motions, the Committee of Reference and Counsel may edit, prepare an alternative memorial, resolution, or motion, or consolidate into a single proposed action multiple memorials, resolutions, or main motions on the same or similar subjects. Whenever the Committee of Reference and Counsel recommends an edited or alternative memorial, resolution, or motion, the report to the assembly shall also contain the original maker's text.

Synod Constitution

Original Text:

Resolution on Child Protection

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America rejoices that as “Jesus invited the children” (Mark 10: 13-16), so are we to welcome, fully embrace and incorporate children, teaching and learning from them; and

WHEREAS, children are a treasure and gift of God entrusted to the care of families, church, and society (Luther’s Works) and the church is called to faithful tending, intentional stewardship, and sacred responsibility; and

WHEREAS, the ELCA recognizes a call to uphold “Each person is created in God's image. We respect this God-given right to dignity and, inspired by the life of Jesus, show love and compassion for all people. Through proclamation of the gospel, through worship and as servants of God working for healing and justice in the world, we uphold and seek to protect the dignity and human rights of all people...As Christ's church, we value the richness of God's creation and offer a radical welcome to all people, appreciating our common humanity and our differences,” including the children in our midst, <https://www.elca.org/about/vision-and-purpose>; and

WHEREAS, in the United States, at least 1 in 7 and as many as 1 in 4 children experience abuse or neglect; and

WHEREAS, the offenders of child maltreatment can be parents, nonparents, unrelated caregivers, siblings, or other children: and

WHEREAS, the Christian Church has perpetuated the spiritual injury of survivors of child abuse and the harm caused by child abuse; therefore, be it

Resolved, that all congregations, ministries and institutions of the South Carolina Synod are provided with tools and strongly encouraged to implement and clearly communicate, at the very least, the following policies: screening and background checks for all staff and volunteers working with children and/or youth; and six months of involvement with the congregation before being allowed to work with children and/or youth; and sign-in and sign-out lists for events and a clear limit on who can sign a child out from an event; and requiring signed permission forms for the sharing of photographs or videos to the general public, including e-news, social media pages of the congregation, ministries and institutions; and restricting access to non-visible areas of a building during events or overnights, including storage and maintenance rooms; and observing the “second adult” rule in any meeting space or vehicle, preferably not related; and observing open-door policy; never having an adult one-on-one with a child or youth - if necessary, meet together in a public place and keep communication lines open with parents/caregivers; and at least two unrelated adults be involved in any verbal or written communication with children and/or youth via digital, mobile, and online mediums, such as texts, chats, video calls, or emails; and not limiting access of children or youth to resources and supplies during events such as, food, beverages, personal care items, and activity supplies which are specifically provided for their use and benefit: and be it finally

Resolved, that congregations, ministries and institutions provide training in recognizing and reporting child maltreatment, including mandatory reporting and resources for walking through that process as a faith community.

Respectfully submitted:

Deacon Ashlyn Cox
Teresa Foster
Mary Katherine Goynes

Deacon Deborah Poole
Hunter Prest
Rev. Josh Kestner